WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

- The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.
- Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction for "fair use". One of these conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.
- This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.
- Requests for photoduplication of material will be considered when such duplication can be made without damage to the material, when it is within NYU medical archive policy, and when it is in accordance with donor agreements and copyright restrictions. When allowed, single copies will be provided for the requestor's reference use only.
- Further duplication of copies, in any manner, is not permitted.
- Transfer of copies to another library or repository is prohibited.
- In making copies available, NYU medical archive does not thereby grant permission to reproduce or quote for publication. Requests for permission to publish must be submitted in writing to the NYU medical archive. In addition, when the NYU medical archive does not hold copyright, the requestor must also obtain the permission of the copyright holder. The requestor assumes full responsibility for any infringement of copyright or publication rights belonging to the author, his/her heirs or assigns.

It is understood that these reproductions are not to be used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research. I take full responsibility for any infringement of copyright.
